“Continents and Oceans”

Our Earth is a very, very, very big place!

It is covered by water and land.

It has five huge oceans, where we can swim,

And seven continents, where we can stand.

Asia is the continent that has the most people.

It's also the largest in size.

It has the 50 highest mountains in the world—

Their peaks reach high into the skies.

Second largest is Africa.

It's the hottest continent of all.

It has the largest sandy desert in the world ,

And animals both large and small.

If Africa's hottest, then which is the coldest?

Antarctica—but it's so very cold. It's only home to seals, penguins, and other birds.
Though there's snow, it's the driest, I'm told!

And which is the wettest? It's South America!
Rainforests cover much of its face.
Millions of animal species live there. You'll find them all over the place!

Our Earth is a very, very, very big place!

It is covered by water and land.

It has five huge oceans, where we can swim,

And seven continents, where we can stand.

Let's look at Australia.

It's the smallest of continents.

The fewest people call it home.

Most of its land is the bushland and outback, Where koalas and kangaroos roam.

Now on to Europe. Though it's rather small, It has dozens of famous old cities.

Berlin, Madrid, Paris, London, and Rome— Each city is uniquely pretty!

Last but not least is North America.

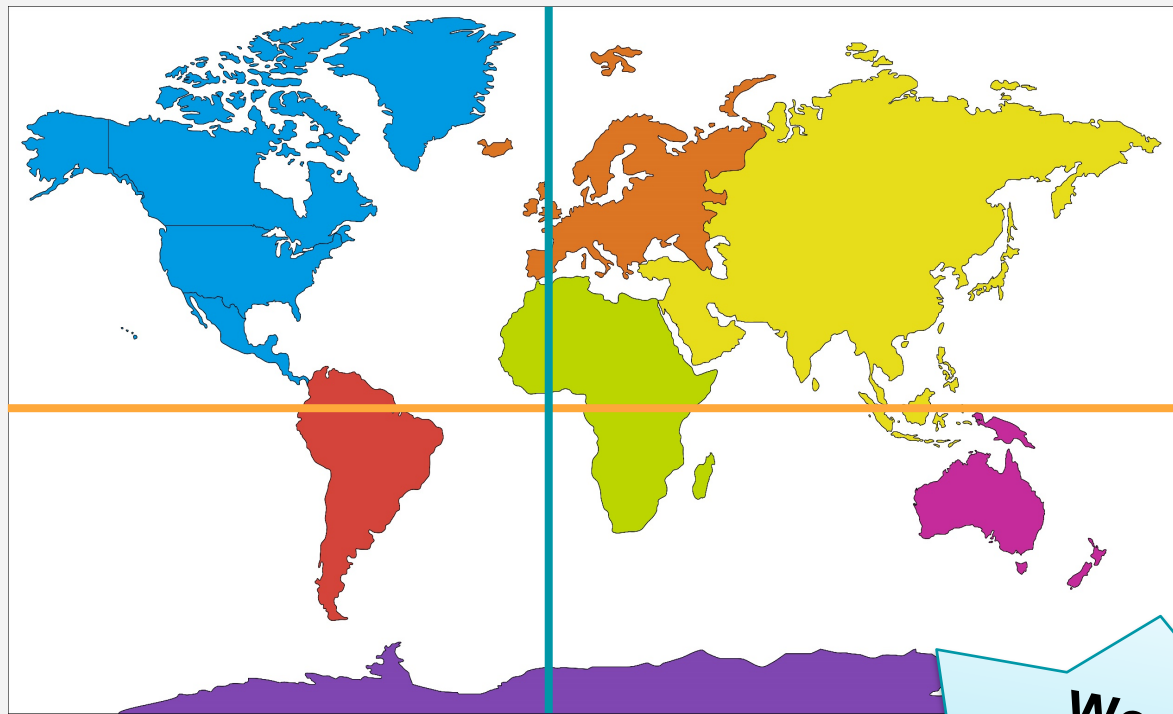

It's the continent that I know best.

It is the home of our own United States—

A wonder from East Coast to West!

But let's not forget, there are also five oceans. Please let me be quite specific. Their names are the Southern, Atlantic, and Arctic, the Indian, and the Pacific!

A wide-angle photograph of the Sydney Opera House, a world-famous performing arts center. The building's iconic white, sail-like roof is the central focus, with its multiple curved sections creating a dynamic, sculptural form. The base of the building is a dark, brownish-grey, featuring a series of windows and entrances. In the foreground, a dark, calm body of water reflects the sky and the building. A low, dark stone or concrete wall runs along the water's edge, with a few small figures of people visible on the promenade. The sky is a vibrant blue, filled with soft, white cumulus clouds. In the upper right corner, there is an orange rectangular box containing the text 'Sydney Opera House' in white, sans-serif font.
