| Name | Opinion/Claim | Counterclaim (the opponent) |
|-------------|---|---|
| Johnso n | Shooting games can promote a wide range of cognitive skills. The shooting games also show faster and more accurate attention allocation, enhanced mental rotation abilities, and higher spatial resolution in visual processing. | |
| Darren | Games comfort people's hearts when we feel intense and nervous.For example, we play a game we just finish a project that is pretty important to release our pressure. | When we playing games, we put our minds on what we are playing instead of the next work we have to finish, so when we back to our work, our brain lose the ability to focus again. |
| Jeremy | Gamers can take a different life that they dream for. | However they may be addicted to those dreams they dreamed of. |
| Chris | The musical game, OSU, can train players' hand-eye coordination and sense of rhythm. | The musical game needs a very large amount of concentration, but it will hurt our eyes and our hand and arm muscles if we play too much time. |
| Vincent | The game Pokémon GO can increase gamers' physical | The game may increase the danger of traffic and threatened gamers' safety. |
| | activities and get health benefits. | |

Gamers will be saving the real world in the near future.

| Ariel | Gaming will be saving the real world because it can train people to make right decisions faster. According to a study at University of Rochester August 24, 2010 suggests that video games could be a training tool for quicker reactions while having no bad effect on accuracy. Therefore, gaming can save the world. | There are still some ways to train people's ability to make decisions faster. And playing games has bad effects on people's bodies. |
|--------|--|---|
| Dean | Gaming will be saving the real world because it can be a connection with each other.In Taiwan,a lot of people,like students and adults can know each other only by playing online games.Some even get married. | But u think it is really good? Although the Internet world can meet friends, but you do not think about the other person in front of the screen is like, sometimes you will even be deceived! |
| Arvin | Gaming will be saving the real world because it will help you to slow down the speed of aging.According to the study conducted in London,200 elders play video games about 8~10 hours,which is discovered that can strengthen cognitive junctions and mental relationships. | But if you play games for a long time, it will hurt your eyes, though. |
| Mark | Shooting games can improve the accuracy of the players, even in real life. So police and military can improve their shooting accuracy | Some games like FPS are violent and bloody. If children play those games, they will hurt children's mental health. |
| | by playing those games, they can both have fun and improve themselves when playing shooting games. | |
| Wilson | A successful game must make people feel fun, and this means we can put educational goal in a good game. Thus we can teach in a better way. | A game indeed can make us have fun. |

Gamers will be destroying the real world in near future.

| Name | Opinion/Claim | Counterclaim (the opponent) |

| Ray | In my opinion, I think it is difficult for people not to be affected by the game, we are often distracted by | The phenomenon that you mentioned is for a special case, it's just because they are not capable of controlling |
| | the game and cause what should be done is not done, in the end it will be uncontrollable. | themselves. For the people who have self-discipline ability, gaming can release pressure, properly enhance our mental health and train our mental rotation abilities, reaction capability, etc. |
| Willy | Gaming may destroy the world or make it worse because people will get addicted to playing games and not do anything that is more meaningful or helpful. According to recent studies, people while playing games may feel relaxed and forget the things they should have done, which will cause people to fight in the real world. | Perhaps, people may forget what they should do while they are playing games. And we may make our time wasted.But a person who is able to control himself or herself dosesn ' |
