

LESSON 2

Are You Interested in Trying Food Delivery Apps?

The illustration shows a smartphone displaying a 'Food Delivery' app interface. The app shows a meal of pizza, fries, and a burger for NT$360. Below this, there is a 'SAUCE' section with three options: Cheese Sauce (NT$120), Sweet Sauce (NT$120), and Hot Sauce (NT$120). The total price at the bottom is NT$360. To the left of the phone is a bowl of white rice with a meat and vegetable stir-fry. To the right is a delivery person wearing a red helmet and a white uniform, riding a yellow scooter with a red 'FOOD' delivery box. The background is a light green and yellow circular design with faint text and icons.

Q Why do more and more people start using food delivery apps?

Food Delivery Apps Make Life Easier

With so many food delivery apps <sup>1</sup>out there, who wants to cook anymore? In the USA, <sup>2</sup>three out of every five young people use food delivery apps. In Taiwan, that number is growing <sup>3</sup>among people of all ages. <sup>4</sup>From the chart, we can see that people are interested in these apps for <sup>5</sup>several reasons. First of all, using food delivery apps saves people time because they do not have to stand in line to get into restaurants. They can just sit comfortably at their homes or offices and wait for their delicious meals to arrive. <sup>一字多義</sup>Second, food delivery apps are convenient and helpful.

With them, people do not need to cook. That can really help when people are sick or tired. Another reason is the cost. People do not have to pay a lot for delivery services. Of course, there are many other reasons for this change, such as more choices. The easy-to-use apps also let people choose their favorite types of food and restaurants. In a word, food delivery apps have not only become more popular but also made our lives easier.
