梵谷之歌 (Vincent)

Starry, starry night
Paint your palette blue and gray
Look out on a summer's day With eyes that know the darkness in my soul
Shadows on the hills
Sketch the trees and the daffodils
Catch the breeze and the winter chills
In colors on the snowy, linen land
Now, I understand what you tried to say
to me
And how you suffered for your sanity
And how you tried to set them free
They would not listen, they did not know how
Perhaps they'll listen now
Starry, starry night
Flaming flowers that brightly blaze
Swirling clouds in violet haze
Reflect in Vincent's eyes of china blue Colors changing hue
Morning fields of amber grain
Weathered faces lined in pain Are soothed beneath the artist's loving hand
Now, I understand, what you tried to say
to me
How you suffered for your sanity
How you tried to set them free
They would not listen, they did not know
how
Perhaps they'll listen now
For they could not love you
But still your love was true
And when no hope was left inside
On that starry, starry night
You took your life as lovers often do
But I could have told you, Vincent
This world was never meant for one
As beautiful as you

Starry, starry night
Portraits hung in empty halls
Frameless heads on nameless walls With eyes that watch the world and can't forget
Like the strangers that you've met
The ragged men in ragged clothes
The silver thorn of bloody rose Lie crushed and broken on the virgin snow
Now, I think I know what you tried to say
to me
How you suffered for your sanity
How you tried to set them free
They would not listen, they're not listening still Perhaps they never will
