Zac: Look. There's a lion over there.

Yuki: Wow. The king of animals.

Zac: There are some elephants behind the lion.

Yuki: The baby elephants are so cute, and they are playing with their parents.

Zac: Parents? Not really. Father elephants are never in the herd with their family.

Yuki: That's new to me.

Yuki: Are there any tigers in Africa?

Zac: No, there aren't. Tigers are from Asia.

Yuki: Good to know. Oh, look over there. There are many zebras.

Zac: They're my favorite animals. So beautiful, right?

Yuki: Yeah. What's that on the zebra's back?

Zac: An oxpecker. Oxpeckers are a big help to zebras.

Yuki: You really are an animal expert to me.
