

Causative Verbs

Instructor: Jenna

Learning Time

Jack's mom made him go to bed before 10 P.M.

? What does "make/made" mean?

- A. To force someone to do something they don't like.
- B. To cause someone to do something.
- C. To allow someone to do something.
- D. To not stop someone from doing something.
- E. To ask someone to do what they should do.

The funny movie made Mary laughed.

? What does "make/made" mean?

- A. To force someone to do something they don't like.
- B. To cause someone to do something.
- C. To allow someone to do something.
- D. To not stop someone from doing something.
- E. To ask someone to do what they should do.

Kate had the waiter clean her table.

? What does "have/had" mean?

- A. To force someone to do something they don't like.
- B. To cause someone to do something.
- C. To allow someone to do something.
- D. To not stop someone from doing something.
- E. To ask someone to do what they should do.

Bob didn't let his son drive a car.

? What does "let" mean?

- A. To force someone to do something they don't like.
- B. To cause someone to do something.
- C. To allow someone to do something.
- D. To not stop someone from doing something.
- E. To ask someone to do what they should do.

Justin let his kid cry on the train.

? What does "let" mean?

- A. To force someone to do something they don't like.
- B. To cause someone to do something.
- C. To allow someone to do something.
- D. To not stop someone from doing something.
- E. To ask someone to do what they should do.