Unit 3 Standing Up for What Is Right

高二愛 No. 14 Name 莊富裕 Score A++

Please answer the following questions.

1. According to The Global Goals for Sustainable Development, we are supposed to fulfill "Goal 5--Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls." Thus, after we finish reading the article, Standing Up for What Is Right, do you think there is gender equality in Taiwan? Give some examples of the development of gender equality in Taiwanese society.

Answer:
Women have made significant progress previously only being able to receive supplementary education to now being able to freely pursue education and held various positions. Today women are excelling in many traditionally male-dominated professions, such as police officers, firefighters, doctors, and even presidents. These changes not only reflect society's recognition of women's capabilities but also demonstrate a shift in gender roles, encouraging more women to pursue the careers and life paths they desire.

2. Please illustrate some Taiwanese famous females and their brilliant achievements or contributions in different fields from all walks of life.
