

Review 1 3D Printing: Imagination Is the Only Limit

Learning Checklist

Here's a quick checklist of the items you have learned. The list contains vocabulary and patterns from the previous lessons. Check off the items you remember and come back after you have reviewed those you are not familiar with. Let's start...

☐ suffer (L1)	☐ construction (L2)	☐ S + find/consider/feel/think... (L1)
☐ prompt (L1)	☐ unique (L2)	+ it + adj./N + to + VR
☐ promise (L2)	☐ innovative (L2)	☐ It seems/appears that + S + (L1)
☐ material (L2)	☐ reliable (L2)	V....
☐ structure (L2)	☐ stable (L2)	☐ that & those (as pronouns) (L2)
☐ capable (L2)	☐ beneficial (L3)	☐ not only...but also... (L3)

Identifying Types of Topic Sentences

Underline the topic sentence of each of the following three paragraphs. Then specify the type of each topic sentence.

3D-Printed Limbs: Body Parts That Don't Cost an Arm and a Leg

Man-Made Reefs: 3D under the Sea

Building a Brighter Future: The 3D-Printed Cities of Tomorrow

- (A) A bridge that connects two paragraphs.
- (B) A strange question to arouse readers' curiosity.
- (C) A new demand to lower expenses and work efficiently.
- (D) An intention to solve a crisis the public is very concerned about.

(E) A surprising fact that tells the readers what something is about.

(F) A positive result which was made possible by a new technology.